Your Best Friend

2008 Northern Light

Vol. 68

On our very first day of high school, our principal, Mr. Gay, told us who our best friend would be. He wasn't referring to any person we might know, but instead a small, compact, inanimate object that would end up becoming very important to all of us.

Although Mr. Gay was speaking figuratively, our planners have been like best friends to us over the years. Our best friends in reality offer guidance. Our planners do the same. At the top of every page you will find quotes from the most important people of our time and their simple sayings can guide us through our lives just as our actual best friends do.

SCHOOL CALENDAR 2007-2008

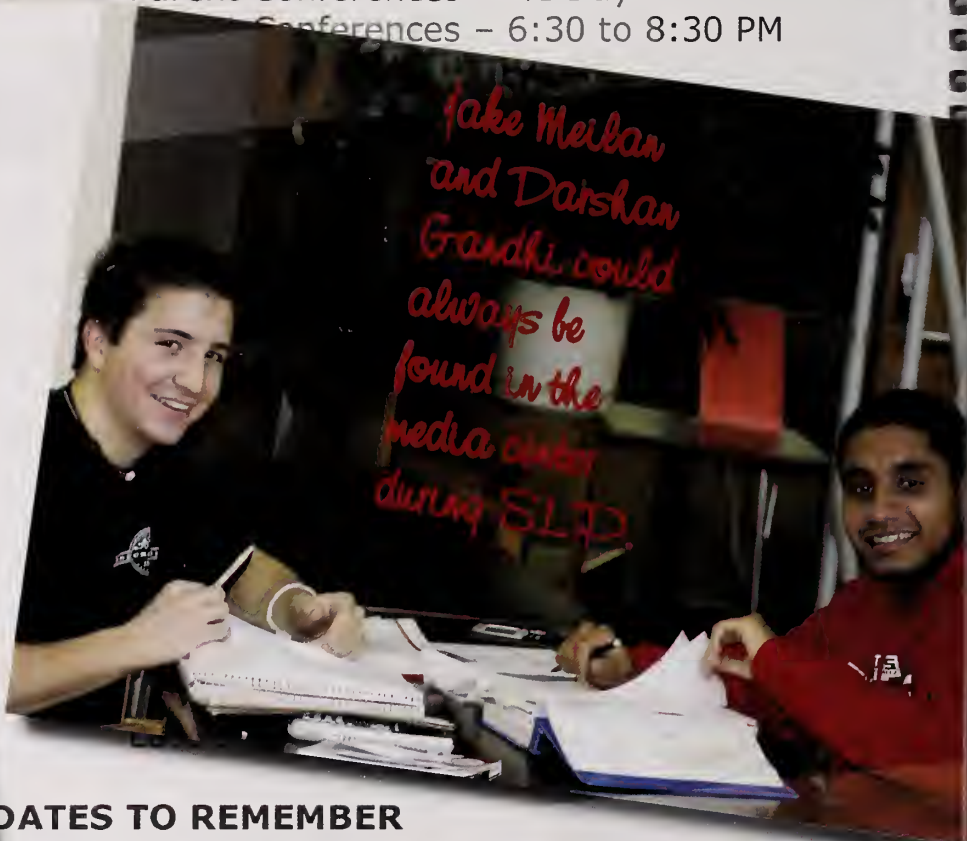

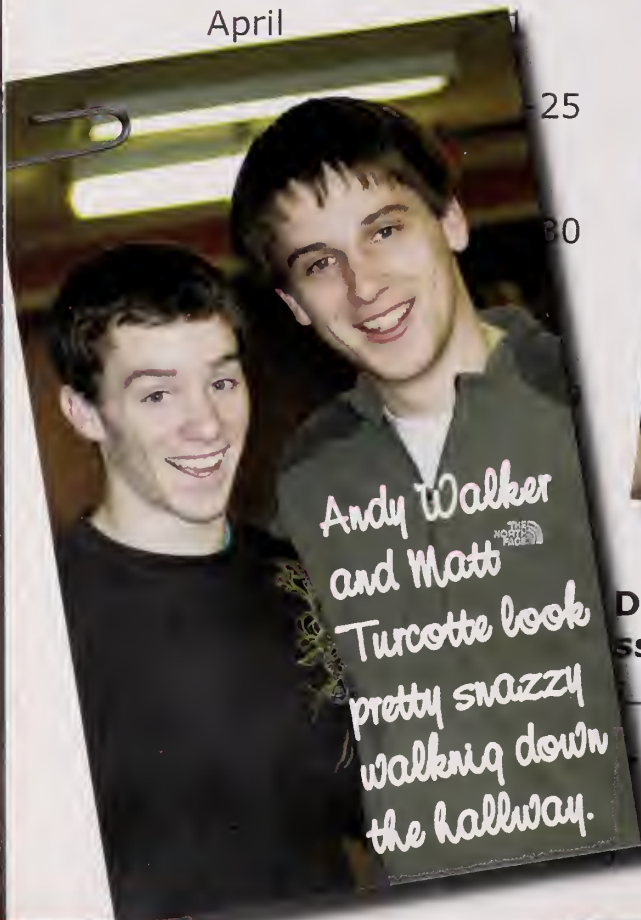

Think of your best friend.

We all have one. Maybe we have more than one. They're the people who make the boring times great, and the great times even greater. The simplest things become lasting memories when we are with our best friends. Sometimes simply looking at them can bring a smile to our faces.

It's impossible to face all that high school throws at us alone. The relationships with our best friends grow during high school. We walk through these doors for the first time together, not knowing what to expect. We learn on our very first day that these four years will not be easy. Luckily, we have our best friends beside us.

Sometimes we can lose sight of how important our best friends are. We may end up fighting with them or losing touch with them for something else, such as a new relationship. But no matter what the fight is, or who that other person is, we will always come back to our best friends. Try to picture your life without your best friend. It doesn't seem so great, does it?

CHEATING/PLAGIARIZING - When it has been determined that a student has cheated or plagiarized on homework, class work, or any type of examination, the student will receive a zero for the work and the teacher will notify the student and then the parent immediately by telephone. The appropriate Assistant Principal will be notified via an email. The appropriate Assistant Principal will then meet with the student and the parent to discuss the incident and the student's options for a new course.

It's hard in life to lose a loved one, or a boyfriend or girlfriend, but it's even harder to lose a best friend. Fighting with our best friends can cause more pain than any physical harm we might be subject to. That's because fighting with a best friend means fighting with a part of you. You're fighting with someone who helped to shape who you are as a person.

We've been talking about OUR best friends, but let's not forget that you yourself are someone's best friend. You are a very important figure in someone else's life. We all have one, two, or even three people who we would walk to the end of the Earth for, simply because they mean so much to us. They're always there for us, and we're always here for them. Always.

credits

Freshmen must earn 20 credits to be a sophomore. The minimum numerical passing grade is 60. At the end of the semester, if a student fails to pass a required course and is absent 15 or more days, the Guidance Office will send a letter student's parents/guardians explaining

Administration may excuse the length of the make-up work missed due to a school-sponsored field trip will be due the next day following the field trip.

Brendan Grealish and Tom Howard seem to always be together!

Spirit Week was so much fun, especially with seniors Erin Armstrong, Amanda Parker, Lauren Alix, and Nicole Canon rocking their college shirts!

When it's time for the end, it's important for us to remember who was there in the beginning. So when you do leave high school, think back to who helped to make it the greatest time of your life. Even though we might go our separate ways with our best friends, that doesn't mean they are gone forever. The bond will remain, and the memories will last.

We can honestly say that our senior year flew by. Before we knew it, we were already on Christmas break, and were looking forward to spring's warm weather. It's difficult to imagine, but so much has happened in what has seemed like such a brief period of time.

We've had the privilege of being the role models of our school. We were given the opportunity to set an example for the entire school, and we passed with flying colors. We demonstrated a near perfect balance between hard work and great times.

Our senior year was definitely one to remember, and we have each other to thank for that. We had a diverse group of personalities that meshed well and allowed us to see past this year in so many lights and from so many different points of view.

While we had many events and occasions to recollect on it will be the simplest things that we miss the most: fighting for a parking spot, running to beat the bell, and simply hanging out in the hallways.

We grew up this year. We ascended to the top of the mountain and that journey prepares us for life beyond high school. Now that we've surpassed the pinnacle of our high school goals we being another ascent that will allow us to shape our lives in the future.

Being seniors meant taking on a certain responsibility, and when we faces problems as seniors we had to handle them ourselves, as opposed to running to a teacher or parent to solve them for us. By making it that far we were given more freedom, but we were also given more responsibility.

Senior year was our time to choose who we remain close to. There are so many of us that it's nearly impossible to keep in touch with every single person. No matter how many people we know, we all know deep down that there are certain people that we just don't want to let go. For some of us, those people have been there well before high school, and our relationships with these people grew even stronger senior year because we knew it was our last year together.

Senior year was at time of both happiness and sadness. We're ecstatic that it is our final year, and finally on top of the hierarchy, but it's almost a shame that it only lasts for two semesters. Senior year flew by, and that joy slowly fades as we realize that we have less and less time with the people we shared so many memories with.

One of the most exciting things about senior year was us being on top. We had the rest of the school looking up to us and we were in a position of power and respect. We had the excitement of counting down our final days, and the excitement rose higher and higher as that period of time got shorter and shorter. Before we knew it we had one day left, and when that final bell rang a thrill arose in all of us, because that was the final bell we would ever hear at North Attleboro High School. That bell meant so much more than just: "Go home". For us, that bell meant "Goodbye and good luck", for we were officially moving on to the next part of our lives.

During senior year most of us made the choice of who we want to be, and once that bell rang we were given a new journey: a journey to become whoever it is we want to be.

What is there to say about our junior year? It was definitely the most stressful and demanding year we have been thrown into, but together, we pulled through. We had to keep up our grades and take SATs because colleges will be examining our transcripts next year. We managed to find time between studying to have a social life, and had some great events, including Chris Cummings' hilarious stand-up act, our Junior-Senior Social and the legendary Powder Puff game against the seniors. Despite our unfortunate loss, we will be back next year, ready to win! Next year is our time to shine and to rule the school.

2008 was quite the year for the sophomore class of 2010.

From events like science fair, to varsity sports teams, sophomores stole the show. The Class of 2010 showed their school spirit in the fall rally with loud cheers and festive outfits. Sophomores gave the Juniors a run for their money in a close tug-of-war match.

This year stuck us with bigger tasks in independence, and was a lot different then our freshmen year. School got a little harder and we needed to keep college in the backs of our minds.

All in all, our sophomore year has been a truly successful year. Dances, fundraisers and more have brought us together during the school year. We will all remember the good times from this year, and will make many more next year as juniors, when we plan to beat the seniors in the rally!

Freshmen

*Freshmen Officers:
Secretary Katelyn
Rose, President
Justin Perron,
Treasurer
Frank Kai, and
Vice President
Alex Hubble*

Our freshmen year was a year full of change. While it was not as intimidating as we thought it would be, it was a lot more challenging than middle school. We had to take on more responsibilities, and with those responsibilities came more opportunities. While we did not do as much as past years have done, our main event the Freshman- Sophomore Social, was a big hit. The dance was held in the senior pit, and more than 150 kids attended to dance the night away. The officers and student council hung signs and decorations up around school, collected class dues, sold social tickets, and planned the social. With the freshmen officers and student council leading the way, our freshmen year was a success. We look forward to seeing what lies ahead for our sophomore year.

A Sobering Presentation Every other year, the junior and senior classes are able to experience a mock accident. With the number of adolescent fatalities due to drunk driving on the rise, North Attleboro High School seeks to educate and protect its students.

Seniors Maria Norris, Kyle Marcolini, Matt Divoll and Bridget Moriarty, all members of the North Attleboro High School Theatre Company, volunteered their time and talent for this year's production. As students filed outside, they were greeted by a sobering scene depicting the consequences of driving under the influence. Ms. Cavanaugh, a NAHS math teacher, shared her professional acting skills to intensify the incident, starring as Matt Divoll's sister mourning the death of her brother.

Various groups, such as the North Attleboro Police and Fire Departments and Dyer Lake Funeral Home ensured that this year's reenactment was a memorable one. The accident was followed by a presentation by the Chief of Police. The combined efforts of the actors and organizations rendered this year's reenactment successful and poignant.

Giving Back to the Community This year, the North Attleboro High School Honor Society hosted another successful blood drive in the Pickering Gymnasium. The Honor Society, with the help of the Red Cross, set up stations for donating blood for the students of North Attleboro High School. This year, as in all past years, the students of North Attleboro delivered. As the students donated blood, Honor Society volunteers helped out by reading stories and organizing snack stations for all of the donors. The Red Cross was extremely thankful for all of the assistance by the Honor Society. The annual blood drive is always a great example of how North Attleboro students make such a difference in their community.

Puff Powder

The Tradition is Upheld As the cold weather approached and the leaves started falling, we all knew it was Powder Puff time! With everyone bundled up in layers, practices at Mason Field began. With hot chocolates in their hands, the football players started drilling us in our positions, preparing for victory. As the big game neared, the insecure Junior Jets were talking up their team, while the Senior Sharks stayed humble and ready to win. Everyone knew the Seniors' experience in the game would help them prevail.

Led by coaches Kevin Connolly, Mike Hart, and Elijah Harris, the Sharks were confident in their leadership and were ready for anything the Jets threw at them. The game started a little dark as all the players had to warm up with no lights, just to the sound of Elijah's whistle. We knew the Jets were going to have a hard time when they lined up against the Shark defense. Then, the offense put on a show with double passes, reverses, and many other trick plays.

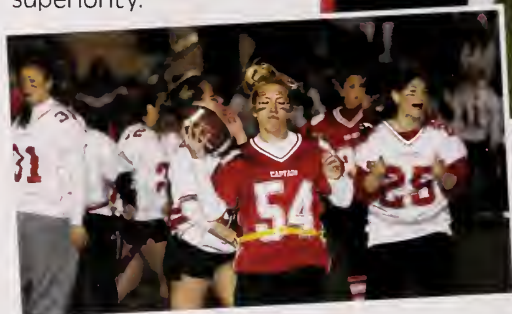

When the final whistle blew, the Sharks came out with a score decision. The Juniors gave a gallant effort but were no match for the superior talent of the Senior Sharks. Annihilating the Jets is just another tradition in North Attleboro. As the seniors leave their legacy behind, we would just like to say one thing to the juniors . . . better luck next time!

Football

...No Breaks

The 2007 football season proved to be a roller coaster ride for the Rocketeers. At the start of the season, the team had high hopes of obtaining a Hockomock Championship. We bonded as a team at Cape Cod Sea Camps and really were able to create chemistry with jokes like our "No Breaks" team slogan. The season got off to an interesting start with a tie against our arch rivals and future Division II State Champs, Bishop Feehan. Thanks to great leadership out of our seniors like Dan Rayburg, Greg Dusel, Phil Tryon, Kyle Kummer, Jordan Laythe and Brett Catarius, we reeled off five straight wins and were suddenly back in contention. We headed into Mansfield with a league championship on the line. After our ritual warm-up of listening to Creedence Clearwater Revival, we had high hopes and we were prepared to give them all they could handle. Although we lost, we would not let that affect us, as we came back the next week and shut out Oliver Ames. Our last game had great implications as we had to keep Hilda in North Attleboro for its thirteenth straight year. The game was a reflection of the entire season, as we got off to a rocky start and found ourselves down at halftime, but once again came out on top. Coach Kummer always talks to us about the ghosts flying around Community Field. Now the class of 2008 gets to become one of the many ghosts, joining the Long Red Line. We may not have accomplished every goal that we intended, but every time we put on our North jersey, you can guarantee that we played with Loyalty, Integrity and Discipline.

- Captains Kevin Connolly, Mike Hart, and Elijah Harris

Golf

welcome to the Val

Coming into 2007 golf season a lot of questions needed to be answered: Who Would Step up to play varsity? What would the season hold for us? All these questions were answered as we started off the season 4-0 and had many young players prove themselves as valuable parts of the team. We filled some big gaps from the loss of three top players from the 2006 season. We were able to finish tied for second in the Hockomock League with 10-6 record. At the state tournament qualifier we set a North Attleboro team record of 317. More importantly, we won the Hockomock League Sportsmanship Award for the third straight year. Despite our constant mockery of Locust Valley, our home course, we will never forget the amazing famous chicken tenders and fries, or our times at "the Val." Nor will we forget the faithful red and white cooler, stuffed with food that we totes with us to every away match. Mrs. Oliver was always there to supply us with another spread of food, which had its dual purpose as a victory meal or comfort food for when we lost. The experience of playing on the North Attleboro High School Golf Team is unlike any other. The seniors that will be leaving this year will never forget all that they experienced and all that was done for them, nor will they forget their prized patch of dirt that is the "Val."

2007 Fall Play: "Our Town"

"Our Town" in Our Town This year's fall play was a far cry from the light-hearted comedies and murder mysteries usually featured in the Cobb Theatre in November. The North Attleboro High School Theatre Company took a more somber route, presenting Thornton Wilder's "Our Town". A story of love and death, this play proved a challenge for the Company's actors and actresses, but they pulled it off with flying colors. Many audience members left the theatre crying after both performances, and many freshmen left liking the play a lot more than when they read it in English class.

"Our Town" tells the story of ordinary people in an ordinary town - Grover's Corners, New Hampshire, at the turn of the twentieth century. The play focuses around Emily Webb and George Gibbs, childhood friends who grow to love each other. There are many other subplots throughout the play - George's mother's dreams of going abroad, church organist Simon Stimson's drinking problem, and the changing of a small town's life as simplicity makes way for technology.

The cast showcased talent from every grade. The Stage Manager, the all-knowing presence who narrates the play, was played by sophomore Joe Marino. Senior Bridget Moriarty and freshman Connor Bry played lovebirds Emily Webb and George Gibbs, respectively, and the roles of their parents were played by seniors Tiffani Signorelli, Becky Gaffney and Bryce Lipscomb and sophomore Joe Kain. The other citizens of Grover's Corners were an ensemble of quirky characters such as stuffy Professor Willard (senior Kyle Marcolini), town gossip Mrs. Soames (senior Michelle Shore) and church organist turned town drunk Simon Stimson (senior Shelby Garlick).

The play proved to be an emotional experience for the cast as well as the audience: There were tears both onstage and off in the final act as Moriarty, in the role of Emily, tearfully bid goodbye to the life she had known and Bry, as George, said a final farewell to Emily. Many cast members said that the play was challenging, tearjerking, and, at times, painful - but, overall, completely worth it.

Boys Cross Country ...Razzle-Frazzle!

The 2007 Cross Country season for the North Attleboro boys was nothing less than success. We finished 3rd in the Hockomock League with a record of 6-2. Sure our team did not go undefeated, but our season was still memorable and successful. Many memories were formed during our season. With Nehal Patel and Greg Payne's "seriousness" coupled with the humor of Brad Willox, Pat Comerford, and Nick Wade, the team to us was perfect. Countless jokes were made including the bestowing of nicknames. Joey DiMartino was dubbed "Geo Duck" and Nick O'Leary will forever be known as "Clams." The numerous team dinners at Olive Garden and Papa Gino's brought the team together, got us pumped up, and served as just the right amount of fun to make our season that much better (Although we always seemed to make too much noise in Papa Gino's). Sean Rooney's "Razzle-Frazzle!" phrase became the slogan for the season. At the start of each race Sean and Brad Willox, our captain, would scream our slogan so that everyone could bear witness to our amazing team. We are confident in saying that the success of our season, as well as the memories we formed, will last forever. - Captain Brad Willox

Girls Cross Country

The 2007 Girls Cross Country Team proved that they wanted to run fast and "bang that left." In the summer, it looked like the team might be a small one, but when practice started and new faces showed up ready to work hard and push each other, everyone knew this season would be the best one yet.

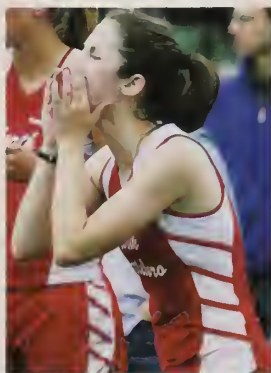

Made up of 4 returning runners and 8 rookies, the team ran through hot and cold weather, rain, sleet, and snow, and finished with a winning 5-4 season. Led by seniors Captain Sara Kraz, newcomer Amanda Parker, and Steph Moses, the underclassmen had no choice but to push themselves to keep up with them. We all made this season a memorable one, filling every practice and bus ride with laughter that was definitely contagious. No one can forget the Pterodactyl, bangin' those lefts, pasta dinners and Bertucci's bread, gettin' buck in here, and superman-ing. Even more unforgettable was our sleepover complete with the cinematic masterpiece The Hills Have Eyes, along with Mullet's beautiful, angelic voice screeching "yeahyeahyeah!" We all became inseparable and I know that next year, under the leadership of captain-elect Katie Czepiel, you girls will be great! Keep bangin' those lefts! -Captain Sara Krasney

Game Faces and Glowsticks This year's annual Thanksgiving Day rally was accompanied by NAHS's first ever Spirit Rally. The Spirit Rally was held to support the NAHS football team in the 2007 Homecoming game.

The day of the rally, classes competed against each other in grueling matches of tug-of-war and dodgeball, both under the superior direction of Emperor Tom Howard. As usual, the senior class won every competition, crushing the spirit of the underclassmen.

The annual Thanksgiving Day Rally consisted of the customary slideshow, band and color guard performance, and the infamous spirit competition. Unfortunately, confetti was banned this year, but that setback did not stop the seniors from another impressive victory. During the spirit contest, the gym was suddenly darkened and the seniors pulled out their secret weapon; Glowsticks unexpectedly illuminated the gym and, instantly, the seniors won the contest, continuing the tradition of upperclassmen supremacy.

Coming Home Once again, Homecoming festivities concluded with the annual Homecoming Dance. Whereas the Homecoming Dance has been unsuccessful in the past, this year's dance was well-attended. Although the night was stormy, everyone had a great time. Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors in casual wear congregated in the senior pit of the cafeteria, and the dancing began . . .

As voted by the Seniors, Dave McGrady was crowned Homecoming King, and Toni Zagami Homecoming Queen. While the DJ played the best hip-hop and rap, the Homecoming King and Queen enjoyed their dance. Despite the humidity inside and the rain outside, crazy dancing ensued and everyone had a good time. We can only hope that next year's Homecoming Dance will be as memorable.

GIRLS SOCCER

Rough Play. Senior Ashley Hanson steals the ball from her opponent.

The North Attleboro High School Girls Soccer Team started off the 2007 season the right way by bonding at soccer camp and learning from Tony "how champions are made!" The tough hours of V-Sits, ladders and obstacle courses at double sessions paid off, as we brought the Blue Red Cup back to North and entered the state tournament with a key win over Canton. Our team dominated all across the field, and our flatback four defense was virtually unstoppable. Through Little Sister Dress-Up Day, car washes, sleepovers, and dance parties on the bus, we made this season special. The underclassmen really stepped up and gave the 17 seniors an unforgettable season. We did work!! We know Shannon and Kelly will lead this team to another successful season next year. We'll miss you girls! Good luck!

Soccer

...know what it is, what it is, when we do what we do

The North Attleboro High School Boys Soccer team had an historic year. We broke records and for some we broke legs. We won a very competitive Hockomock League for the first time in the school's history with a 16-1 league record. We clinched a tournament birth in the shortest possible time by winning our first nine games. We protected Kelley Field going undefeated at home the entire season and finished with a final record of 18-2-1. The pre-game speeches by the captains really pumped up the team and the sweeper's mouth guard never prevented him from talking. We ended the season with six Sun Chronicle All-Stars, four Hockomock All-Stars, three Eastern Mass All-Stars, and one All-State All-Star. As we kept improving throughout the season, and with a little help from Oka and Cambridge, and the faithful support of the "Rambunctious Crowd," we entered the tournament with confidence. We were met with stern competition in the state tournament but came out on top in the first two matches to advance to the Sectional Semi-Finals. In a tough shoot-out against a talented Brockton team we came up just short. We left with our heads held high and the seniors leave the legacy of a growing Rocketeer program to the younger players and are sure Coach Santos and Coach Alves will keep the program strong. You know what it is, what it is, when we do what we do.

Latin Bake Sale

All for a Good Cause The annual Latin Club Bake Sale is always a huge hit at North Attleboro High School! This year, both the French and Spanish National Honor Societies pitched in to make the event even more of a success. An enormous amount of cupcakes, cookies, and candy was sold throughout the day to hungry students and faculty. All of the proceeds from the bake sale went toward a scholarship in memory of North's beloved Latin teacher, the late Ms. Waddell. As always, the Bake Sale served as a precursor to the Thanksgiving Rally, pumping up students and faculty. As face-painted, decked out students crowded the cafeteria, bargaining for baked goods, the excitement built over the upcoming rally, football game and, finally, Thanksgiving break.

Creativity at Its Finest On November 17, 2007, the National Honor Society hosted its annual Craft Fair, an event that supports not only the National Honor Society, but also local crafters, while providing the community with an opportunity to enjoy artwork, crafts, and handmade goods. The morning started early when crafters arrived at North Attleboro High School with products ranging from paintings, wreaths and jewelry to aprons, lamps, and holiday items. Some National Honor Society members helped arrange tables, while others manned refreshment tables, and provided moral support for the crafters. All profits benefitted the National Honor Society, and, throughout the year, would fund such events as the National Honor Society Induction. Even more, the crafters had rave reviews of the fair's organizers and volunteers.

FIELD HOCKEY

...play with passion!

The 2007 Field Hockey Season was nothing less than amazing. After a long summer of captain's practices and double sessions, we held a huge cookout where all three teams came, ate, made t-shirts, swam, and ate some more. We held spaghetti dinners before nearly every game to get pumped and re-fueled for the next day. At the varsity sleepover, we stayed up all night laughing and playing Wii, forgetting that we had to wake up at 6am for the Breast Cancer Walk. On Senior Night, the juniors went all out with balloons, decorations, and cake, and the seniors could not have asked for a better season. Though our record does not show it, we worked hard and came together as a team more than ever before. We know that next year's captains Kayla Hoff and Shannon Moore will bring success to the team. We love you girls! Good luck next year!

...do it for Dana!

The 2007 Volleyball season started off with Coach Weymouth's infamous double sessions, but miraculously no one passed out from the extreme summer heat. We finished our season 11-8 and made it to the tournament - but our most memorable moments came off the court, like the Breast Cancer Walk in Boston, the teachers-players tournament, the spaghetti dinners, and of course Dana. Who could forget our scavenger hunt taking pictures with the car and raiding Matt's room at our sleepover, or Ashley in her crazy mullet and Katie O'Neil's crazy spandies on Dress Up Day. Nothing could top Brenna's bear crawls or Coach's birthday at Bertucci's. The season was filled with blood, sweat, and tears, but we stuck together with "No excuses!" Good luck to our seniors next year and to everyone else, good luck with Coach Mullet- you'll need it! And remember, Do It For Dana! - Captains Nicole Matte and Mallory Sluetz

CHEERLEADING

...New Team, Same Dream!

The 2007-2008 Cheerleading Fall and Winter Seasons were unforgettable. Led by Captains Nicole Hardy and Regan Johnson, we officially began our journey as a team at UCA Camp at Mt. Ida College in the summer.

There, we formed our sisterhood and all four seniors were chosen as UCA Camp All-Stars. We stood behind our football and basketball players through victories as well as tough losses. We strutted our stuff at our own Fashion Show Extravaganza that turned out to be a hugely successful fundraiser. In Competition Season, we earned a first place trophy at Shepherd Hill and won the Hockomock League Championship in our own gym. All of our hard work paid off when we scored the highest the South Regional Division II Champions, and then performed flawlessly at States, just one point short of the title. We finished second at New Englands the following week, a competition we had never been to before. The memories of our sisterhood will last forever. Good luck next year, girls - the seniors are so proud of you!

If you Ain't First you're Last

Even before the start of the season we knew the Hockomock was going to be very strong. We knew to be successful our hard work would have to lead us as a team. Struggling at times because of a lack of great basketball talent our hard work paid dividends at times. Coming from behind four times for victories, the most memorable one against Bishop Feehan on Senior Night, rose our spirits. Practices were always fun because Wilks would always have something to say to keep us entertained. Zach would be there to make another bad joke and laugh hysterically about it. However we knew when to get serious and to get ready for our next opponent. This season will always be remembered by our seniors Zach Achin, Greg Dusel, Greg Elkins, Wilkerson Gedeon, Kevin Connolly, Thomas Engstrom, and Mike Hart. GIRLS BASKETBALL

...be perfect!

Under the leadership of Coach DelBonis, the North Girls' basketball team had a very successful season. The Lady Rocketeers opened up strong, winning three of our first four games, including a big win over Sharon in an overtime home win. After falling off pace for a winning season, we were determined and persistent going into the second half of the season. Our hard work paid off, and we won seven of our last ten games. We won our first tournament game against O'Bryant and traveled to Bishop Feehan to face the unbeaten Shamrocks. We fought hard, entering the locker room at halftime only trailing by one point, but our efforts fell short and we lost. The memories we made this season will last forever, like the pasta dinners, making t-shirts, and "accent week" during practice. These good times will last long after our record and statistics are forgotten. Good luck to the girls and Coach DelBonis next year, and thanks for a wonderful season!

Science Club

The Little Einsteins This year continued the greatness of the Science Club with our largest number of enthusiastic members in recent years. The upperclassmen led a group bolstered by new, younger faces that will ensure its success for years to come. Hopefully, everyone enjoyed and learned something from the plethora of experiments shown at our meetings. These demonstrations ranged from the laws of physics to multi-colored fires, and were always exciting, usually educational, and occasionally dangerous. Members became personally involved in helping to raise money by selling candy and by participating in our paper-recycling program. The Vernal Pool Project with the Falls School students helped to pass on our love of science to a younger generation. The field trip to the New England Aquarium was a blast, and truly epitomized the positive spirit and attitude of our club. The successful experiment presentations by our members at Heritage Day closed out this awesome year. Thanks to Mrs. Cochrane for her outstanding support and good luck to next year's club. Keep up the good work and have fun!

Hockey

...what is our profession?

We started off the year putting a Varsity Hockey team back on the ice for the first time in over 20 years. With 16 of our 24 players being underclassmen, we knew we were up for a challenge. We started off the year skating hard, especially during practice, which was most likely due to Justin Crear staring at the banners. If it wasn't that, it was Brooksie talking non-stop on the bus or Flynn's season-long announcements, which were slight attempts to stop the team from "Buttercup" sing-alongs. We speak for everyone when we say Freddie was the biggest force to be reckoned with on the team seeing as he was always picking on someone. One of our biggest achievements this year might have come when we were facing the #1 team in the state, Franklin, and although we lost, Pat Mooney's words of encouragement made us jump 100 spots in the standings to #2 in the state. We would eventually find our groove later in the season when Kevin brought to light Uncle Kracker's inspirational words, "Follow me." We soon found our game preparations through goalie dances in the locker room and Flynn's Spartan speech. In the end we all had a fun time and what we considered a successful season where we all improved individually, as well as a group. Good luck to next season and the future seasons to come!

Matt Divoll insists that, whatever happened, Joe Kain did it. Heather Ann Krasner, Bridget Moriarty, and Joe Marino do not know what is going on.

And the Award Goes to... This year's One Act Festival set the bar high for future festivals. The 2008 One Acts included four plays, instead of the usual three. The four one act plays in this year's festival were "The Wedding Story," directed by senior Kyle Marcolini and assistant directed by senior Erin Armstrong; "How Does a Thing Like That Get Started," directed by junior Francesca Boulton and assistant directed by junior Arielle Cohen; "The Scheme of the Driftless Shifter," directed by sophomore Ryan Caster and assistant directed by sophomore Joe Kain; and "The Compleat Works of Wllm Shkspr," directed by senior Tiffani Signorelli and assistant directed by senior Vanessa Schofield.

This year it was a long three-day audition session for those seeking roles in the One Acts and the talent of those auditioning was overwhelming. By the time Tech Week came around, the casts were ready and willing to give it their all in their one-night-only performance on Friday, January 18 to a full house.

Each and every year, awards are given to the most distinguished performance, favorite play, best actor, best actress, and best director. This year, "The Compleat Works of Wllm Shkspr" was awarded Favorite Play; Best Actor went to freshman Connor Bry for "How Does a Thing Like That Get Started"; Best Actress went to freshman Heather Ann Krasner for "The Compleat Works of Wllm Shkspr"; and Best Director was awarded to senior Tiffani Signorelli for "The Compleat Works of Wllm Shkspr".

Junior-Senior Social

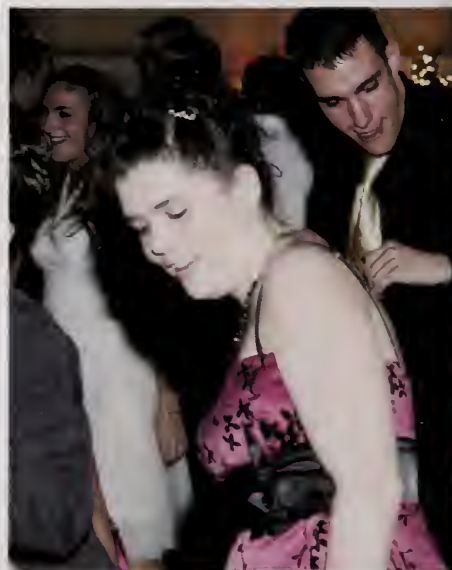

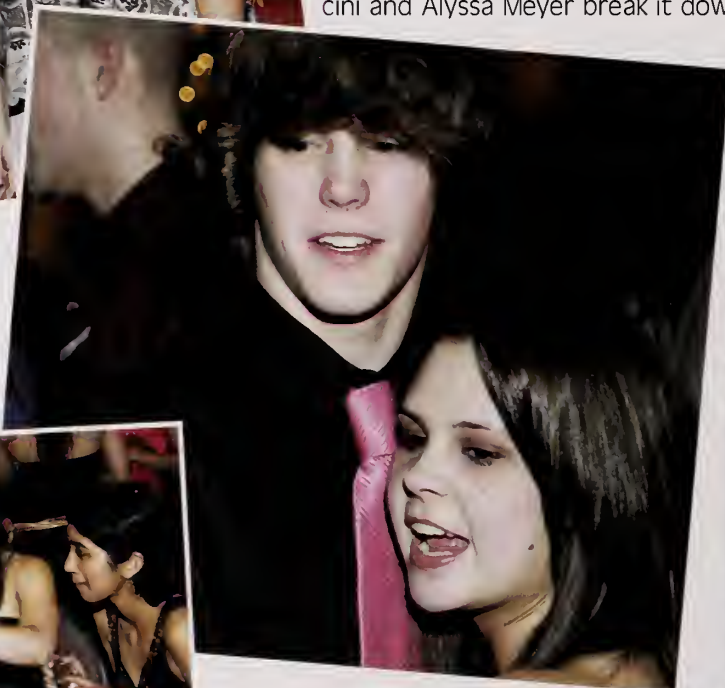

Launch of a Tradition This year marked the first-ever social created specifically for the upperclassmen. On the night of January 11th, we all arrived at the Highland Country Club dressed in our best and ready to dance the night away on a floor free of freshmen and sophomores. We were offered an array of delicious appetizers, fancy drinks, and an ice cream buffet throughout the night, while the DJ kept the music playing so that everyone got their share of food and fun. The night was definitely one to remember, complete with a scavenger hunt to find playing cards - in exchange for prizes - to round off the festivities. The first Junior-Senior social was an obvious success, giving the upperclassmen an event to themselves and an exciting new tradition to continue for years to come.

Honor Society Inductions

Welcome to the Society Every year, the North Attleboro High School Honor Societies induct new members in order to recognize excellence in scholarship, good citizenship, and a positive attitude. Throughout the year, the National Honor Society members volunteer at various events in town as well as offer tutoring to underclassmen at NAHS. This year, the NHS inducted new members from the Junior and Senior classes. Admission into the NHS is a difficult process and it is a significant achievement.

The Foreign Language National Honor Societies also held their induction ceremonies this winter. The FLNHS recognize French, Spanish, and Latin students who demonstrate experience in a foreign language as well as good citizenship. Members tutor foreign languages, participate in cultural activities, and teach Spanish and French to middle school and elementary school students. The NA Chapter of the Spanish National Honor Society is the Pablo Picasso Chapter and the NA Chapter of the French National Honor Society is the Antoine de Saint-Exupery Chapter. Congratulations to all of the inductees!

Girls Swim

Starting off in a new direction, with captains Maddie Hebert and Chelsea Berkely leading the way, the North girls swim team entered new territory; the Hockomock League. The season began with a bang- literally!- with the bus hitting two cars in the parking lot. The team made sure to refuel constantly with spaghetti dinners and ended the season at 10-1, earning both the Hockmook Dual-Meet and League Meet Championship. Maybe the team should have received some speeding tickets along the way for going so fast! The 200 Free Relay team of Megan Hamlin, Marylou Hedberg, Madison Hebert, and Jess Berkely broke the school record and placed 3rd at Girls Sectionals. Jess Berkely placed in both the 100 Fly (breaking the school record) and 100 Breast Stroke, and Sam Jankowski broke the school record in the 50 Free. We're so proud of you girls! Good Luck next year.

Boys Swim

...for the glory of it all

The 2007-2008 Boys Swim season was one to remember. Starting a new season in a new league, we had high expectations. With numbers of swimmers in the high teens we worked through the season to become one of the best teams in the Hockomock League. Everyone pushed themselves for the team from Devers the human fish freshman, to Scanlan, a first year senior who learned the breaststroke. Despite finishing second overall in the Hockomock, we did fulfill all of our expectations. We were just the beginning of a whole new program that will grow and evolve in the Hockomock League. Good luck to all future seasons of Boys Swim. – Captain Ryan Brousseau

Winter Concert

It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas The annual winter concert, held in honor of the December holidays, featured the jazz choir, jazz band, a cappella choir, concert choir, and concert band. The choirs and the bands performed a mix of popular choral and band pieces with some holiday classics, such as "Silver Bells."

Every year, the concert band and concert choir perform the very famous movement, known as the "Hallelujah Chorus" from the oratorio, Messiah. There were two student conductors: Allison Edge for the band and Kyle Marcolini for the chorus.

During the course of the night, members of the Art department showcased their works in the hallway, and the audience observed the artwork and voted for their favorites during the intermission. The winner was announced at the end of the night.

To conclude the holiday concert, the band played Christmas carols, while the chorus and members of the audience belted out the renowned melodies.

The winter concert is considered a night of fun and entertainment, and this year was no different. The audience was able to view the incredible artistic creations of students, as well as listen and sing along to the melodious choirs and the euphonious bands.

Beading Club

Bead Away The Beading Club was recently formed by Ms. Estey as a way for the students at NAHS to express their creativity through jewelry. The students are able to design and create their own, unique jewelry pieces that they are able to wear. New ideas are brought to the club and everyone shares new techniques that they have learned or developed. We are able to work off of each other and bring fresh styles to the uniform. The club is open to everyone at all times, providing a friendly atmosphere that is relaxing and easy in which to work. The Beading Club offers a different form of art that is quick and fun for all members as they make their own necklaces, bracelets and earrings. This club is a wonderful way for NAHS students to express themselves through their own unique talents and look good in their creations!

Art Club

Calling all Artists For all artists, from skilled photographers to visionary painters, Art Club offers a creative outlet that embraces artistic talent. Throughout the year, Art Club members shared their talent with NAHS students and faculty, from individual artist displays in the Media Center to participating in the Winter Concert, during which the Art Club added an artistic flare with a display of student art in the Senior hallway. With the guidance of Advisor Mr. Flanagan, members of the Art Club also sold silkscreened T-shirts to purchase materials for a group project that was featured at the Attleboro Art Museum.

Boys Winter Track

...for the glory of it all

Fueled by Mrs. Peter's home baked goods, the North Attleboro Men's Indoor Track Team finished off another promising season going 7-1 and finishing second in the Hockomock League behind rival Mansfield. Although our second place finish was disappointing, we were successful with many strong performances from our athletes. Junior Nick Wade qualified for the National Meet in New York City, while senior co-captain Elijah Harris was league champion in the dash and co-captain Greg Payne broke the school's 2-mile record. Many other things were accomplished and established, such as the "Evan Dean" rule, stating that in any relay involving a baton, Evan Dean will be forced to lead off thanks to his disastrous hand-off skills. A new event is in the works, known as the "Rooney Toss" where Sean Rooney will be the victim of big guys like Brian Courtney and Mark Wolf. Without a doubt it was a season to remember, and one of the best ones in school history. The team would like to thank the coaches especially for their dedication and commitment to us all. We wish the best of luck to the teams of the future.

GIRLS TRACK

...compete like you practice

This 2007-2008 Girls Winter Track Season marked a new era in North Attleboro Track and Field, with new coaches, a new atmosphere on the team, and even a new warm-up. The sprinting group completely changed this season, as they mastered C-Skips, ran intense critical zone workouts, and actually left practice later than everyone else! They learned to "compete like you practice" and got their butts kicked because of it. The distance girls continued to work hard and grow in size. With the snowball fight, dancing to "Low" in the weight room, and the "Donnas," there was never a dull moment. Under the direction of Mr. Holster, the throwers stepped it up for us this year a ton. We held a spaghetti dinner and t-shirt-making day to show the rest of the league how close-knit we were. We finished our season at 5-3, with two new school records in the 4x2 and 300m. The 4x2 team of Katy Flannery, Julie Cappadonna, Lauren Goldberg, and Kristen McLoughlin were state champions and competed at Nationals! This season was everything we could have asked for, and under the leadership of Katie Czepiel and Lauren Goldberg next year, we know you girls will be amazing! Good Luck!

North Idol

Who Will Be the Next North Idol?

The 2008 North Idol singing competition featured an incredible amount of talent from the participants. It is amazing how much skill we have right here at North Attleboro High School! The senior class hosted this American Idol-style event, unaware of the popularity it would gain.

Participants from every grade sang their hearts out to their favorite tunes. The singers were then evaluated by the Idol-esque judges Mr. Burgess (Randy Jackson), Mrs. Pasquine (Paula Abdul) and Mr. Holster (Simon Cowell). The North Idol judges lived up to their real-life counterparts and called it like they saw it.

The audience was also entertained by various gag groups, including a Vanilla Ice performance. Britney Holbert won the audience's vote for Best Singer, while the N'SYNC gag act consisting of Brendan Grealish, Nick Brown, Matt Turcotte, Sean Farrell, and Jack Tobin earned the vote for Best Gag Act.

P.E. Leaders

"Down to the Right!"

This group of seniors led the underclassmen everyday and participated in their games as the leaders of physical education. They were in charge of setting an example for the younger kids and leading the activities. In return for all their hard work, they were rewarded with a cookout at the end of the school year full of games such as kickball, medic, and pickleball. It was a great time for all of the gym class heroes to get out of class and play games.

Wrestling

...the Evil Empire

Winning a championship is not as important as the road to getting there. The hard work that was put into the season helped make us who we are today. Each student athlete gained valuable experience whether it was the rookie on JV or the veteran Varsity starter. Each wrestler offered his own individuality to the team that made it such a great year. Whether it was "Jay Jhou" the greatest Chinese pop-star or singing "American Pie" on one of Burgess's extreme workouts, each wrestler had their impact. Speaking for the entire team we would like to thank the coaches who not only taught us how to wrestle, but also acted as amazing role models. We would also like to thank all of the parents, without whom we would have nothing. And of course the Rowdy Crowd, which supported us at every meet and tournament, helped push us through hard times. We created great memories that we won't soon forget, like beating Franklin twice and winning Hockomock, Sectional, and runner-up State Championships. We wish all upcoming seasons the best of luck...even though you don't need it!

'THE WIZ'

The Wiz

Follow the Yellow Brick Road This year's spring musical was "The Wiz," directed by Ms. Forsgard with the musical direction of Mr. Rizzo. The musical was the funky, 1970s version of The Wizard of Oz. Dorothy (Heather-Ann Krasner) leaves her faithful Aunt Em (Michelle Shore) and Uncle Henry (Shelby Garlick) behind and lands in Oz on the tail of a tornado. On her way to find the wizard, who is the only one who can help her get home, she meets a brainless scarecrow (Ryan Caster), a tinman (Kyle Marcolini) and a cowardly lion (Joe Kain). Together, the four friends travel to Oz and meet the wizard (Maria Norris). The wizard helps them acquire what they most desire after they kill the wicked witch of the West (Kim Fears). The scarecrow gets his brains, the tinman gets his heart and the lion gets his courage. With the accompaniment of an orchestra pit, rotating light show, funky costumes, and superb acting talent, "The Wiz" has been one of the best shows performed by the North Attleboro High School Company.

International Thespian Society

The members of Troop 1088 of the International Thespian Society epitomize the dedicated and talented actor. To be inducted, a Thespian must have contributed 100 hours of excellent work, in either acting or technical work. This year we have 12 new members being inducted and the troop is continuing to grow. All Thespians must live by the motto "Act well your part; there all the honor lies", meaning even the smallest part, must be played to the fullest. Being a Thespian is a privilege in the theatre community and is the highest honor a high school theatre student can achieve. Madonna and Tom Hanks are also Thespians! Every Thespian shares the love of theatre and all of the hard work that goes into it. -Bridget Moriarty

NAHS Music Department

Strike Up The Band The North Attleboro High School Music Department had quite an exciting year which culminated in a fantastic trip to Walt Disney World. The Marching Band competed for the first time in many years, and eventually earned a bronze medal at MICCA. This was all despite the fact that the marching band looked very sharp in their brand new uniforms. Both the Jazz Band and the Jazz Choir continued to excell. The Jazz Band played a favorite, "Four Brothers," and the Jazz Choir sang, "Lady Be Good". The Concert Band was also successful, earning a silver medal at MICCA with tunes such as "October" and "Olympiada". The Concert Choir received a bronze medal at MICCA with the crowd-pleasing "Soon All Will Be Done". The A Capella choir sang the favorites "Longest Time" by Billy Joel, among other popular songs. Rounding out the Music Department was the Percussion ensemble, which was loud as usual.

The best part of the year was easily the long-anticipated trip to Disney. There, we rode Rockin' Roller Coaster, the Tower of Terror, and swam in a guitar-shaped pool. We had an amazing time and never wanted to leave. When it was all over, there was only one appropriate thing to say: "Boo ya, Grandma!"

Girls Lacrosse

...start of a tradition

There's always a first for everything. This year was the first varsity girls' lacrosse team at North Attleboro High School. Our first few games ended in losses, but we finally got our first win as a varsity team in our match against Feehan. Although we were only able to capture a single victory, our record does not speak for the season. Our improvement, hard work, and determination was apparent during every minute of every game. The memories made on and off the field will never fade, as the team grew extremely close over the season. The 2008 lacrosse team built a foundation for the future varsity program at NAHS. Congratulations to the members of the first varsity team and good luck to next year's captains Ashley Eustis and Shannon Moore. We know we are leaving the team in good hands!

Boys Lacrosse

...for the glory of it all

This season of Lacrosse was a bit of a struggle with a record of 1-17. However through all the losses we remained a team. Our players showed their team pride dressing up everyday we had a game. Under the leadership of our seniors and our Captains, Mike Curren and Kyle Bainton, we toughed it through the hard spots. Although our record was less than ideal, Mike Curren was still recognized as a Hockomock All Star, and Kyle Bainton was made Sun Chronicle All Star. Our program is still new and we have a ways to go, but we have come far in such a short period of time. In the years to come our talent and skills will develop, and we become a stronger team. Good luck to next year's team and all teams to come. - Pete Clarner

Cultural Immersion Club

Building World Viewpoints The Cultural Immersion Club was an idea that became a reality. This new club was an experiment that proved successful in creating an outlet for expressing personal curiosity of different worlds. From simple conversations about different cultures to cooking and eating their ethnic flavor, the Cultural Immersion Club was an experience unlike any other. Environmental Club

Cleaning Up The Community The Environmental Club at North Attleboro High School works diligently to make the community aware of the the environment and how we impact it. The club strives to emphasize the importance of nature in our everyday lives. This year, the team worked to encourage recycling throughout the school. Club members hung posters in every room that motivated students to care about the environment. The Environmental Club placed recycling boxes in every room, and the school noticed an active effort by all students to improve their recycling habits!

The Next Generation Mr. Russo led the Future Teachers Club this year, lending his guidance and wisdom to the club and enabling students to expand their teaching abilities. The main project that the club accomplished was assisting Falls Elementary School kids after school with the help of Mrs. Keff. The students taught the kids about Mexico and Canada and built a board game. We also attended a seminar on bullying and teaching at Bridgewater State. It was very educational and we all learned many tips and hints on dealing with the challenges of teaching in a hostile environment. No one will ever be able to forget the memories and lessons taught in the Future Teachers Club.

Model UN

Let's Hear it for Peace-Keeping This year's Model United Nations solved world hunger. OK, not really, but we did engage in heated discussions, debate the options for developing nations, and formulate a cohesive resolution to address the needs of the many impoverished people of the world. With a lively blend of upperclassmen and underclassmen, students researched topics and shared their unique point of view. Special thanks to our advisor, Mrs. Wilkerson, for keeping everyone in line when we got a little too excited about the useful force in global crises or the technical definition of "underdeveloped." We look forward to another successful year in 2009!

Model Senate Takes the Floor The Model Senate Club was a great success this year. Never before have we had so many members and such great discussions. For the first half of the year, our agenda was "Pizza and Politics." For the second half of the year, we eagerly anticipated attending two conferences. The Bridgewater State Model Senate conference presented us with the challenge of portraying real life conferences. At the Hockomock Model Senate Conference, we tried to get our bills passed. No matter who won the arguments, we all won with a great year!

Softball

...new team, new expectations

The 2008 Softball season started off with a new coach and higher expectations. Coach Wallace came into the job assuring us that we were better than we thought.

He taught us all new things that we never seen before, which led us to a season of 13-9 overall. We went through the season winning and losing some tough games, which all brought us closer together as a team. The seniors entered the tournament for the first time in their high school careers, and beat North Quincy 5-0. Even though we lost to the number one seed Braintree, we knew that this was by far the most memorable season we've ever had. In the end our record will be forgotten, but the friendships and memories we have gained will last forever. We wish the team the best of luck next year!

The 2008 baseball team capped a great four years by going 17-6 throughout the season. Under the strong leadership of the seniors, North made a deep run through the Division 1 playoffs with help on the mound from senior Mike Mancini and sophomore Evan Dean. Unfortunately the season ended shortly when North lost a close game to BC High in the Division 1 South Sectional Semi-Finals. The big bats from seniors Dan Rayburg, Brendan Picini, Steve Sousa, Kevin Connolly, Greg Dusel, and Greg Elkins as well as junior Mike D'Atillio, led North to huge victories over Franklin and Foxboro. Outstanding defensive plays from such players as senior Mike Hart and junior Kevin Richman gave North important wins by keeping the games close. senior Jordan Laythe and junior Dan Nelson manned the bullpen all year throwing countless pitches to senior Nick Horton. The Leaders of Our Generation

We, Peer Leaders, are dedicated to helping our school, community, and, of course, our peers. This year, co-presidents Hannah Nelson and Nehal Patel organized several volunteer opportunities, such as public cleaning and tutoring. Also, the group became involved in large-scale volunteer opportunities such as the Special Olympics. This group is a testament to North Attleboro's caring youth. It is my hope that this group continues on through the years, aiding the community.

S.C.A.R., or the Student Coalition Against Racism, was a coalition in the truest sense of the word. We had rousing meetings with interesting discussions and tasty snacks and went on three great field trips. The first two opened our mind and broadened our perspective. The third trip – to Bridgewater State College – rewarded us for our efforts. We won an award for the second best posters. This year, S.C.A.R. lived up to what it could truly be.

The 2008 Junior Prom took place at the Taunton Holiday Inn on Saturday, May 3, 2008. The prom was a huge success, particularly because of the junior class' advisors: Ms. Rice, Mr. Russo, and Ms. Bellavance. The theme was "An Evening in Paris" and the class advisers used gold and silver accessories to beautifully decorate the room. The DJ played music that caused the entire room to get up and dance, and overall, it was a wonderful time. The Prom King was Tommy McAuliffe and the Prom Queen was Lydia St. Laurent. The Court posed for a picture, and then the King and Queen shared the traditional dance. This night was definitely a night that will never be forgotten.

Girls Tennis

...make those lobs!

The 2008 Girls Tennis Team had a great season, ending with a record of 14-6 and clinching a 2nd place title in the Hock. Both our first doubles team and #1 singles put up a great fight against many other outstanding players. Our team's success was due to our huge amount of enthusiasm and love of the sport; but along with the seriousness, we shared so many laughs. We will never forget Brenna or Tori's voices and Kerry's obnoxious remarks. Our post season was cut short, losing a hard match the league rival Mansfield. But the thing that makes our team so strong is our will to move on and look to the future. We had an awesome season ladies, good luck next year! PS- Make those lobs and get those ovaries! Boys Tennis

...it's the Mulky Way or the Highway! Can you pay the toll?

With only six players on the first day of tryouts, the tennis team's season looked like it was in trouble, but with some work by the captains and Coach Mulkerrins, it became a strong team of fourteen. The team has changed a lot through our four years, but the attitude has stayed the same. We always put forth our best effort, but had fun at the same time. We continued this attitude through this season, led by the expert guidance of Coach Mulky. Our team bonded through all classes, finally coming together for our signature win over arch-rival King Philip. We really came together before the state tournament, pulling out a gutsy win over Needham before falling in a tight battle with defending state champions Falmouth. The jokes were nonstop- from "Bravo" and "Empty" Reddington to Chetty's absurd Sportscenter commentary to our trips to Rico's and Wendell's. We hope the North Attleboro Boys Tennis team continues to find success and have fun at the same time. Just remember, North Attleboro tennis is not about how nice you look playing, it's about getting the job done!

Yearbook Editors

What Happens in the Office... The 2008 Northern Light yearbook editors worked extremely hard this year to produce another excellent yearbook to showcase the talent and skill of the students and faculty at North Attleboro High School. The ten of us worked long hours in front of the computer and in the stuffy, cramped office to bring NAHS the great yearbook it deserves. Mrs. Lush, our trusted advisor, helped us with any questions we had along the way, and our amazing staff of underclassmen was always there to help with any little details we needed. This year has been such a fun time. Good luck to next year's editors; we know all of you will do a great job!

Girls Spring Track

...OUR HOUSE!

The girls' spring track team went 7-1 in the Hockomock League this season, grabbing a 2nd place at the Hockomock League Championships. Under new coaching, the team shocked the league with its drive and desire to win, despite its small number of only 50 girls. For the first time in years, the girls' and boys' teams worked together, along with a stacked coaching staff of 7. Despite being the underdog to top-ranked team Oliver Ames, the girls started off their season with a bang, grabbing a well-earned victory. We grew extremely close with cookouts, pizza parties, a tie-dye making day, and learned that with hard work, we could do anything. Under the leadership of captains Katy Flannery, Sara Krasney, and Kristen McLoughlin, we continued to SHOW UP, shocking the league with a winning season. Most importantly, we ended the season having enough frozen cookie dough (pre-cut!!) to last us a lifetime. Good luck next year girls, we know you'll be great! -Captains Sara Krasney, Katy Flannery, and Kristen McLoughlin

Boys Spring Track

...we invented mulch

The 2008 Men's Spring Track team was one to remember. Although we failed to win the Hockomock League Championship we scrapped our way to second place in both the regular season and at the Hockomock League Championship Meet. Senior Captains Greg Payne, Elijah Harris and Brad Willox, led the hardest working team in recent history. Highlighted by "The Academy", this team was extremely tough, both mentally and physically. We were both tenacious and ferocious in all of our events, and our team and individual success speaks for itself. With this year's seniors leaving their mark on the program, the underclassmen will be poised to take home the League Championship next season. -Captains Greg Payne, Brad Willox, and Elijah Harris

Denominating the Competition Under the superb guidance of Mrs. Burke, this year's Math League once again dominated the competition. The group met once a month to take a timed, six question test. The top five scorers on the test became our Math Team, and their scores were combined to represent NAHS against the other schools in the New England Math League. As expected, NAHS consistently topped its region, fending off the strong competition of Mansfield and Seekonk. These successes were due to both the hard work of the dedicated senior members and the enthusiasm of the young underclassmen. The seniors would like to thank Mrs. Burke for her tireless support and wish the best of luck to all of the future Math Leagues.

We're Not Hacks! The 2008 Writing and Science lab leaders offered their time and effort to helping other students. Writing lab leaders edited student work and assisted in compiling the monthly newspaper. The science lab leaders organized labs and worked behind the scenes to ensure that lab periods ran smoothly. With the help of these volunteers, students at North Attleboro High School were able to take advantage of entire class periods for crazy experiments or creative writing. Thanks to the lab leaders for all of their continued help and guidance!

Video Club

Capturing Every Moment The North Attleboro High School Video Club worked extremely hard in 2008 to capture all of the important moments occurring at the High School. Under the helpful guidance of Mrs. Lush, the Video Club filmed many assemblies, ceremonies, and events. The Club also filmed the Fall Play, One Act Play festival, and Spring Musical. These productions were shown on North TV, the local television station, so the whole town could see the talent of North Attleboro students. This year also marked the first time the Renaissance assembly was broadcast over North TV. The Video Club will continue to capture memories for years to come.

Making the School a Better Place The Student Council took another step in helping North Attleboro High School this year, bringing back the Teacher Appreciation Breakfast. Senior Student Council members joined forces with National Honor Society officers to produce a wonderful breakfast to show our gratitude to the teachers. The breakfast included coffee, juice and tea, provided by our very own cafeteria workers; bagels, danishes, muffins and fruit were also purchased. The event was lovely. Another Student Council tradition is the Blood Drive held twice a year. Both blood drives fell on holidays (Halloween and St. Patrick's Day), so the gymnasium was a little more vibrant than usual. Numbers have been pretty slim at the Blood Drive the past few years, so hopefully we can push for it to be held on an "off-day" for sports in the future. As president of the Student Council, I hope the group continues to grow and show its NAHS pride. The Teacher Appreciation Breakfast was just the first of many things I hope Student Council will be able to organize in years to come.

Read all About it! Galadriel, North Attleboro High School's literary magazine, once again produced a fantastic magazine for 2008. This year's magazine was full of original student poetry, artwork, photography, prose, and short stories. Galadriel staff selected the best pieces from the hundred plus submissions received from NAHS students. Throughout the year, staff members elected a theme for the magazine, laid out pages, edited the submissions, compiled the magazine and, finally printed the magazine. Galadriel also sponsored the Second Annual Galadriel Art and Writing Contest. NAHS English and Art teachers reviewed the five best submissions and selected a winner. Congratulations to Writing winner Erin Kingsley and Art winner Nicole Ricci. Also, many thanks to our advisor, Ms. O'Brien, for all of her guidance and time. Good luck to next year's editors and staff!

The night began with a sit down dinner and was followed by lots of dancing. Our prom song was "Best Days" by Graham Colton, which played as we watched the announcement of the king, queen, and prom court. In the song he sings "let's make the best of tonight" and at the 2008 senior prom, we did just that.

Informal class day happens after the seniors have gotten out of school. On this day, seniors come back to NAHS and watch the senior slide show, pass down superlatives, announce the yearbook dedication, and announce new yearbook editors for next year. The class officers read the class history and the seniors have a chance to reflect on their four years in high school as they prepare to graduate and pass their position of upperclassman, and the senior parking lot, to the junior class.

FISHER - KELLY BANQUET

The Rocketeers Rewarded 171

On the night of May 20, 2008 the senior class gathered at Leona's Restaurant for the 87th annual Fisher-Kelly Awards banquet. This night is dedicated to all of the senior athletes who have spent their time working hard to represent North Attleboro. Throughout the years our athletes have presented themselves in the true Rocketeer manner on and off the field by displaying athletic skill, sportsmanship, and leadership. A variety of awards were given in honor of these characteristics and our guest speaker Derek Smith helped us understand that the values we were taught in practices and games will help us in our everyday lives. The senior athletes leave their mark on NAHS along with the rest of the class of 2008. They will not soon be forgotten nor will they forget all that they learned from participating in NAHS athletics.

Food, Friends, and Fun 173

The 2008 Senior Cookout broke the tradition and was finally outside instead of in the senior pit, as it had been for the past three years. The seniors had a blast gathering together for an entire period full of food, friends, and fun. There were plenty of hot dogs, hamburgers, chips, and drinks to keep us all satisfied while we enjoyed the sun. After eating, the seniors took advantage of being outside by playing Frisbee, catch with a football, and even by playing Wiffle Ball, all while listening to summer-themed music. The cookout was a great way to end the school year and start the summer.

Hugs and Handshakes 175

Formal class night and the senior reception are two traditions at NAHS that every senior class goes through. The night begins with the seniors listening to speeches by students. This year, speeches were given by Tom Howard, Amanda Parker, and Jeff Whitman. Next, a multitude of awards are given out for everything from the best student in each academic department to students who made honor roll for every term in high school. It is the last night that the senior class is together before graduation. The awards ceremony is followed by the senior reception, at which parents can shake hands and congratulate all of the graduating students. GRADUATION

The Class of 2008 177

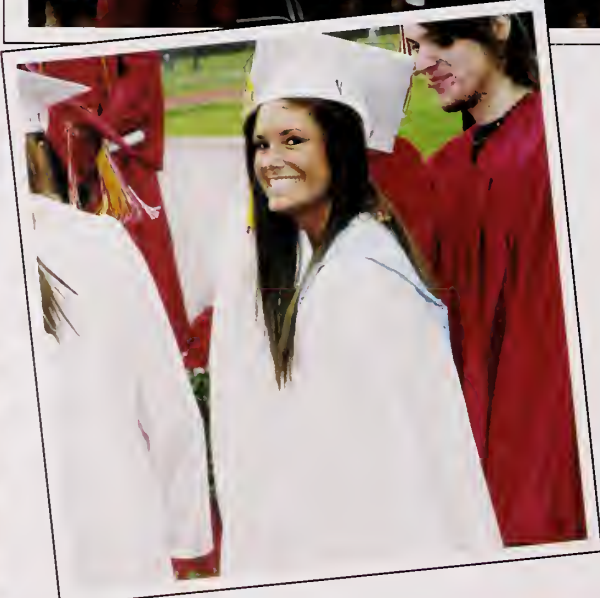

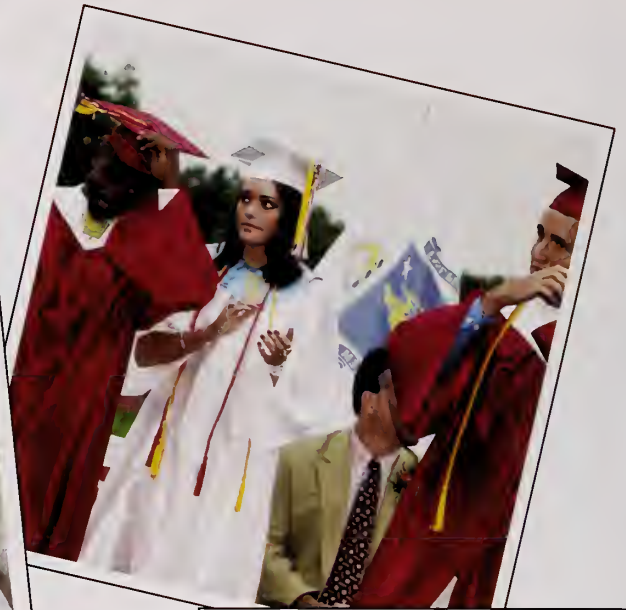

The night that everyone was so eagerly looking forward to finally arrived on June 6, 2008. The graduation for the class of 2008 overcame the three year curse of indoor ceremonies as the proceedings were held outside at the Raymond E. Beaupre Field under a dark, cloudy, but most importantly, dry, sky. Speeches were given by class President Katy Flannery, valedictorian Anupama Kahn, and salutatorian Lucas DeForest. The bleachers were packed and cameras flashed as the seniors were all together for one last time before going their separate ways to begin their futures. Members of the class of 1958 were special guests at the ceremony and received honorary diplomas along with the class of '08 to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the night when they, too, moved their tassels from right to left and moved on into the real world.

ALL NIGHT GRAD PARTY

'Til the Sun Comes Up!

181

After graduating the class of '08 made its way over to the YMCA for the all night grad party. There, students were met with a valet service and a night to remember. As recent grads left their cars they and walked into the Y they were surrounded by streamers, red and white decorations, and lots of things to do. There was enough snacks and treats to keep everybody satisfied and plenty of coffee and other caffinated drinks to keep us awake all night. With a hypnotist, sumo wrestling, bungee football, laser tag, dancing, racing toilets, mini golf, ping-pong, pickle ball, and a dodgeball tournament there were enough activities to keep even the most picky people happy. As the sun rose in the morning raffle prizes were handed out ranging from gift cards, iPods, iHomes, Paw Sox tickets, to HD televisions and a Wii video game system. Everybody left tired, full, and happy that their last night in high school was spent having a blast with their classmates.

Class History

Beginning on the first day of our freshman year, it was clear that North Attleboro High School would never be the same after the Class of 2008. From the moment we stepped into the school that day, excited yet nervously entering the theater for our orientation assembly, teachers and students alike were in awe of our well-behaved, yet determined class. Freshmen year was a year of adjustments for us. We had to adjust to the new scene of the school, as well as the small lockers and even smaller time in between classes. Our class elected Maribeth Mcternan as President, Maryanne Speicher as Vice President, Madison Hebert as Secretary, and Tom Howard as Treasurer. These four helped our freshmen year begin with a great start by planning the Freshmen-Sophomore Social and helping our class make all the adjustments to the new school.

Come sophomore year, we were already masters of the school. We were prepared and ready to tackle our second year, excited to leave an even bigger mark on the school than the prior year. During sophomore year, we managed to get through many of our graduation requirements, such as MCAS and our two required years of health class. The class, again, elected Maribeth Mcternan as President and Madison Hebert as Secretary, and newly-elected Bridget Moriarty as Vice-President and Alix Vandeventer as Treasurer helped the returning duo in leading the class to another successful year. Our Freshmen-Sophomore Social was yet another success, and we began fundraising for our Junior Prom. Having one under our belts, we were stronger both academically and athletically our sophomore year, and really proved ourselves to the rest of the school.

As newly-arrived upperclassmen, our junior year started off with a bang. We managed to rise to the occasion and prove that we were the best class ever by joining together to "tie" (or beat, as we all know is true) the Senior Class in the Fall Rally Spirit Contest. We faced the Senior Class in the 2007 Powder Puff game, but had to walk away defeated. As was to be expected, junior year was a difficult academic year for the Class of 2008... we were beginning to look towards college and figure out our future, and faced the SAT's (some of us, multiple times) as well as many college fairs and visits. Our class elected Katy Flannery as President, Jon Wagner as Vice-President, Madison Hebert as Secretary, and Alix Vandeventer as treasurer. During our junior year, the Class of 2008 dominated athletically, helping to bring many teams to tournament and Hockomock League Championships. Our class successfully brought back the NAHS Pickleball Tournament, as well as helped to raise money and toys to the "Christmas is for Kids Foundation." Thanks to our Prom Committee, and the great of behavior of our class, our junior prom was extremely successful. The class danced the night away to the theme of Havana Nights at the Providence Convention Center.

Finally, our senior year arrived in a flourish. We had finally reached the beginning of the end... and we were ready! The beginning of senior year was busy for many, with college deadlines looming, as well as adjusting to our new classes and new workloads from teachers. We thrived in the many privileges that came with being seniors, such as the proximity of our parking lot to the school, and the class re-elected Katy Flannery as President, Madison Hebert as Secretary, and Alix Vandeventer as treasurer, while newly-elected Elijah Harris as Vice-President was the perfect addition to the group. The class officers, together with the help and support of the class, organized many successful events, new and old, such as the Pickleball Tournament, North Idol, Mr. NAHS, the homecoming dance, and the new All Sports Rally. The senior class dominated the Spirit Contest, as was expected, and Thomas "Caesar" Howard III declared the Class of 2008 the winner of the All-Class Contest. Powder Puff was a great success, with the senior class easily overcoming what the juniors brought to the game. Our Senior Prom was everything we hoped it would be, and we danced and dined under the theme of Alice in Wonderland at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Warwick, RI. And at last, the school year came to a close. Finally, from all the help of our teachers, our administration, each other, and ourselves, we were ready to be on our own. Finally, we are rewarded for all of our hard work these last four years, and we are moving on. The Class of 2008 made an incredible mark on North Attleboro High School, and as we all go our separate ways to begin our new lives, we know that we will not be forgotten.

2008 Northern Light Yearbook Dedication

to Ms. Bedard!

What can we say about Elaine Bedard? The first thing that comes to mind is English, then Poetry, then a passion that cannot be diminished by the years. She has an ability to change students, to instill in them a passion to write and read even beyond the classroom. Ms. Bedard once wrote as her senior quote, "What wisdom can you find that is greater than kindness?" She lives this motto to the fullest each day, with a bright smile for all the teachers and students. Ms. Bedard's passion and student involvement leave a legacy 34 years in the making.

Some little known facts about Ms. Elaine Elizabeth Bedard: In high school, she was the yearbook co-editor, the G.A.R. Good Citizen of 1969, a member of Student Council, Red Cap, and Vice President of the Honor Society. Her peers voted her "Most Likely to Succeed." She surpassed expectations. They also predicted her a future teacher. In 1969 she attended Wheaton College in Norton.

I Am The Cheese remains a staple in the Sophomore English Curriculum, yet her students did not stop there. By choice, her students picked up their library cards and read non-required novels by Robert Cormier. This is attributed to Ms. Bedard's skill in conveying her message. Without those carefully planted words, there might not have been the myriad of Cormier books in all sophomore classes of the school. She challenges students' creativity. She taught generations of students to protest, criticize, and believe in themes. Her door was always open to talk about an assignment, a book, or life in general.

Ms. Bedard will have more time for her first passion in the future. She loves to read anything. She leaves big shoes to be filled, as her classes captivated and evolved the student. We leave her with an excerpt from one of her favorite poems, William Wordsworth's "Intimations of Immortality" :

*The Clouds that gather round the setting sun
Do take a sober colouring from an eye
That hath kept watch o'er man's mortality;
Another race hath been, and other palms are won.
Thanks to the human heart by which we live,
Thanks to its tenderness, its joys, and fears,
To me the meanest flower that blows can give Thoughts that do often lie too deep for tears.*

With that we, the Senior Class of 2008, would like to dedicate the 2008 Yearbook to Ms. Elaine Bedard. - Jeff Whitman

2000 Inductee Attleboro Area Hall of Fame

Died at the age of 19, this scholarship represents the impact and loss Tom's family and friends feel to this day.

Tom Bury — N.A.H.S. 1981 (Deceased)

It would be tough to find a high school athlete who loved the game of football more than Tom Bury. His love for the game coupled with his friendly personality made Tom a great teammate and a coaches' dream. There was never a Rocketeer football player who worked harder on the practice field and performed with more intensity on game day.

Bury was the king pin of the Big Red defense during the 1979 and 1980 seasons. From his nose guard position his quickness, speed, and desire led a North defense which allowed an average of 8 points per game. In 13 of those 20 games Tom and his defensive mates allowed one touchdown or less.

As a junior Tom wasted no time in establishing himself as one of the areas top defensive players. He was outstanding in a 7-0 win over King Philip with 8 tackles and 3 assists. For the season Bury was one of the team's defensive leaders with 68 tackles and 13 assists.

In 1980 Tom returned to his nose guard position bigger, stronger and loaded with confidence. He was immense in 7-6 victories over both King Philip and Foxboro. He finished his high school career with another defensive gem against Attleboro. The North defense led by Bury stopped the Blue Bombardiers scoring drive to preserve a 9-7 victory. Tom led his team in 1980 with 81 tackles and 38 assists, his teammates selected him as their defensive player of the year.

Tom Bury was recognized for his defensive achievements by being selected to both the Hockomock and Sun-Chronicle All-Star teams. The newspaper described Tom as one of the most talented and durable defensive linemen in the area.

to the

"I hope you never look back, but ya never forget,
All the ones who love you, in the place you left,
I hope you always forgive, and you never regret.
And you help somebody every chance you get,
Oh, you find God's grace, in every mistake,
And you always give more than you take.

But more than anything, yeah, and more than anything,
My wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,
Your dreams stay big, and your worries stay small,
You never need to carry more than you can hold,
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
I hope you know somebody loves you, and wants the same things too,
Yeah, this, is my wish..."
